- ESG Risk Rating Range: ESG Risk Rating Range: The range consists of five broad categories defined by Sustainalytics: Negligible, Low, Medium, High, and Severe. Sustainalytics assesses companies' industry and company-specific ESG criteria. Companies are rated on a 0-100 scale, with 0 representing the lowest risk, and 100 representing the highest risk. QRG calculates the percentage of total holding weight in the portfolio and benchmark that falls into each ESG Risk Rating category. The ranges for each category are as follows: Negligible = 0-10; Low = 10-20; Medium = 20-30; High = 30-40; and Severe = 40-100. Sustainalytics ESG Risk Rating evaluates the level of unmanaged risk for a company.

Sustainable Solutions: Measuring the portfolio exposure to sustainable solutions areas. These areas are measured as the percentage of revenues a company derives from sustainable product involvement through:

- Reported revenues: if a company reports actual revenues or percentage of revenues derived from a particular category of involvement, this is captured
- Estimated revenues: if a company does not report actual revenues or a percentage of revenues derived from a particular category of involvement,
 - The revenue range is estimated based on a review of business segment revenues, sales data, and quantity and quality of disclosed product information; and then,
 - take the mid-point of the estimated revenue range as the Percentage of Revenue. For example, if the estimated revenue range is 10-20%, the Percentage of Revenue figure will be the mid-point of this range, 15%.

Renewable Energy: companies that generate or in the manufacture of products and services that support renewable energy generation.

Energy Efficiency: companies that provide products and services that significantly improve energy efficiency across a broad range of applications.

Green Buildings: companies that are involved in the development, management, or provision of products for sustainable buildings.

Green Transportation: companies that provide sustainable transportation products and/or services.

Sustainable Agriculture: companies that produce agriculture, food and forestry products and services that are considered sustainable, according to credible global or national certification schemes.
